Winter 2023

The Ella Round Bulbous Vases were inspired by a series of artworks created in watercolors. The series was painted using various tools to make random linear strokes. The original patterns were on parchment paper and were one dimensional but using the same patterns in cast aluminum allowed for the patterns to come alive in texture and depth. Handcrafted and finished in a bright gold allows the design and all the detailing to shine.

Inspired by the texture of the bark of Sycamore trees in our local forest preserve. After collecting bark samples from older trees that were being removed, we used the samples to create a version of the pattern in cast aluminum. The Sycamore tall vase is finished in a rustic gold that highlights the deep groove texture as well as the rough cut top rim. Each vase brings a touch a nature to the home in a refreshing new whimsical way.

"A Lonely Walk" was inspired by the study of mid century artists. These artists experimented with geometric shapes, abstract sketches, texture, and color in ways that were never seen before. My complete amazement came from not only the composition but the fact that each walked alone their paths not knowing if their work would be accepted. Each were true trailblazers in their own way.

The Black Ore Vases derive their name from a recent trip to a stone quarry. After watching massive sections of dark black stone being craved out of the ground, we took away inspiration for colors and textures that could be translated into current home accessories. To accent the rich dark finish, we added a polished stainless-steel silver ring angled around the neck of each of the glass vases. Both vases offer a dramatic accent for today's modern interior design.

The Albrecht glass collection was inspired by a showing of abstract contemporary art, that was being shown at a gallery in Europe. Our take on this was to show movement with the contrast between the white, gray, and black colors. We once again took classic shapes and redefined them to update the style to fit today's modern living.

The Sivas collection of glass vases was inspired by the brush strokes of a recent work of art that was being work on in our studio. The frosty white, cool gray, and metallic silver were blended together layer after layer being used until the right composition appeared. This was then applied to the vases and a polished silver stainless steel ring was added on the top as an accent.
